

Wait on God, not on time, for what to do next

May 26, 2020 | 29 comments

With stay at home orders in force for many, businesses closed and workers unemployed, many people are wondering what to do with their time and what to expect next.

One truth that I have found helpful during these unusual times is to remember that everything I need to prosper and continue being productive is coming directly to me from God. I don't have to wait on time to pass or for government officials to issue new decrees to move ahead with my life. God is my Life, and God is ever-active causing good things to happen without end.

Our bodies may be hanging out in a small apartment, but our thinking doesn't have to think small.

Our employer may not want to see us at work, but that doesn't mean our thinking can't be productive and profitably engaged.

The truth is, we are not finite mortals stuck in a physical condition that limits what we can do. We are spiritual beings reflecting the Mind of God that can do anything.

Think big. Think expansive. Think spiritual! God's Mind, your Mind, is full of good ideas to keep you productively employed.

Wait on God, not on time, to see what you can do and accomplish that has worth and value. You might be surprised at what is possible.

“When we wait patiently on God and seek Truth righteously, He directs our path”
(Mary Baker Eddy, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 254).

Categorized under: Christian Science, God, Mary Baker Eddy, Mind, Science and Health, Truth

Tagged with: calm, protection, spiritual mindedness