25th Annual Benefit Concert: "And Yet, We Sing!"

Sunday, June 7, 2020 at 4:00 pm

נשיר למרות הכל

Throughout the ages, music has provided comfort and hope in the most challenging of times. Music fortifies us personally and unites us as a community. On Sunday, June 7th, CBST will present a special concert celebrating 25 years of gorgeous, groundbreaking Shirah concerts. Since 1995, our concerts have featured Yiddish, Sephardic, Israeli, operatic, chamber music, Broadway, liturgical music from every genre, and so much more, performed by the CBST Chorus, our Cantors, Music Director, and guest artists. You're invited to be reunited in song, for despite everything, we sing!!

- Music Director Joyce Rosenzweig
 Cantor David Berger
 Cantor Magda Fishman
 Cantor Jason Kaufman
- Cantor Dan Singer
 Cantor Steve Zeidenberg

LGBTQ Organizations Unite to Combat Racial Violence

CBST has co-signed this important letter condemning racist violence: "We, the undersigned, recognize we cannot remain neutral, nor will awareness substitute for action. The LGBTQ community knows about the work of resisting police brutality and violence.

"We celebrate June as Pride Month, because it commemorates, in part, our resisting police harassment and brutality at Stonewall in New York City, and earlier in California, when such violence was common and Friend, the 6/2 news: CBST statement on racial justice, June 7th Concert, & upcoming Pride events expected. We remember it as a breakthrough moment when we refused to accept humiliation and fear as the price of living fully, freely, and authentically."

We are devastated by the callous murder of George Floyd, z"l, who perished in an act of racist police brutality this past Monday. We also remember Ahmaud Arbery and Breonna Taylor, z"l, who were fatally shot in acts of racist violence.

We mourn their tragic loss and vow to continue fighting for a world without racism, bigotry, and hatred; a world in which every one of our black and brown family members and neighbors--Jews of color and all people of color--is treated as being made in the divine image, a world that takes their safety and dignity seriously.

We recommend this list of "Anti-racism resources for white people," which compiles excellent articles, books, movies, and podcasts for learning how to deepen our engagement with anti-racist work. As we learn from Rabbi

Tarfon in Pirkei Avot (The Ethics of the Ancestors), "It is not incumbent upon you to finish the work, but neither are you free to absolve yourself from it."

Stretch Yourself this Shabbat!

Join Rabbi Rapport in our Yoga/Meditation Shabbat service for Pride month, with special guest teacher, CBST Member Corey Dane, and Zoom scholar in "residence," Rabbi Liz P.G. Hirsch! Rabbi Hirsch and Rabbi Rapport were co-authors on a new halachic examination of yoga as Jewish worship practice, published this month (we're working on getting a PDF of the article to share at a later date).

Our 75-minute service will be a combination of Shabbat-informed meditations and gentle yoga (with a track for both mat-based and chairbased practice), followed by lunch and Torah/text study with Rabbi Rapport and Rabbi Hirsch. You decide: is yoga kosher? When does Jewish prayer practice innovate and appropriate over the centuries? Songs to Soothe the Soul

" Till We Reach That Day" (Ragtime)

Music: Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty; Lyrics: Lynn Ahrens; Playwright: Terrence McNally; Based on the 1975 novel Ragtime, by E.L. Doctorow

Sally Wilfert, The CBST Chorus, Joyce Rosenzweig (conductor), and Shinae Kim (pianist); From the 2016 Shabbat Shirah Concert, "There's No Place Like Home"

It is remarkable and sad that a Broadway show written in 1996, and based on a fictional story taking place in 1902, could have so much relevance to the events taking place in our country today. The racism and hostility that causes Coalhouse's car to be violently destroyed, is the same anti-black racism that caused Sarah to be beaten to death by the Secret Service because she is "mistaken" for an assassin at a rally. At her funeral, these words of grief and anger are cried out by the mourners, who demand an end to such injustice and pray for the day when all people will know justice and equality. Keyn y'hi ratzon ! Sally Wilfert will be one of the featured singers in our upcoming concert "And Yet, We Sing" this Sunday at 4:00 pm.

CBST in the News

Rabbi Kleinbaum, Matt Nosanchuk, and Rabbi Rachel Timoner co-authored this powerful op-ed on taking a stand for racial justice in The Forward --give it a read.

RUSA LGBT, founded by CBST member Yelena Goltsman, held a fabulous online Brighton Beach Pride event this past Sunday, with LGBTQ+ Russian-speakers from around the world. If you missed it, you can watch the video on YouTube here. There's also an article in Gay City News here.

Rabbi Kleinbaum was interviewed on "What We Learned From The AIDS Crisis" by Valley Beit Midrash. You can watch on YouTube here or listen on SoundCloud here.

CBST rebbetzin Randi Weingarten was on the May 27 Brian Lehrer Show on WNYC discussing "How Schools Can Open Safely." Take a listen here !

Rabbi Kleinbaum's Drash on Racial Justice (May 29)

This past Shabbat, Rabbi Kleinbaum spoke powerfully about our responsibilities in this moment. If you missed it, or if you'd like to share it with friends or family, it's available to watch here.

CRRI Deborah Megdal's D'var Torah (May 30)

Did you miss Cooperberg-Rittmaster Rabbinical Intern Deborah Megdal's D'var Torah from this past Shabbat? Watch it here to learn her insights.
