Activity:	Prepare a menu of different cafe-type snacks that include a discussion topic question. Depending on the kids, the questions can be as complex or as simple as what's suitable. Some discussion questions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Should Israel trade prisoners for captured soldiers?</li> <li>-Should all types of Israeli Jews serve in the army, including chareidim?</li> <li>-Should Israel be a "religious state" or a "Jewish state"?</li> </ul> and can include some lighter topics such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Is water wet?</li> <li>-Are hot dogs a sandwich?</li> <li>-Is pizza better as a square or triangle?</li> </ul> Find sources and opinions online to reflect all sides of the argument and allow the chanichim to discuss and have an open dialogue on these issues and debates. The goal is for them to understand the issues at hand a little more and to understand the different viewpoints and why it is a big issue.
