CORONAVIRUS - COVID-19

Dear Members;

Yesterday, Friday July 3rd, 12 good men and true, and 4 women - even gooder and truer - met in the yard of our shul to daven - for the first time in almost 4 months - Mincha and Kabbalat Shabbat services led by Franck Cwilich and Hazzan Sheni Yossi Aberman respectively. Split evenly down the middle between both of our shuls, this was a great representation of the longing and the will power of our members who wanted to return to some degree of normalcy. Before we started the services, Fred Rudy took the pictures below.

This didn't just happen. YASHIR KOACH to Mike Andradi, Sam Abramovitch, Lewis Fogel, Fred Rudy, who put it together, and made it happen, and in the process made everyone feel very safe as we ushered in the Sabbath.

As we prepare for next weekend's official opening, please stay tuned to emails explaining and detailing our opening.

PARSHAT HASHAVUA - WEEKLY TORAH PORTION

Pinchas

Numbers 25:10-30:1

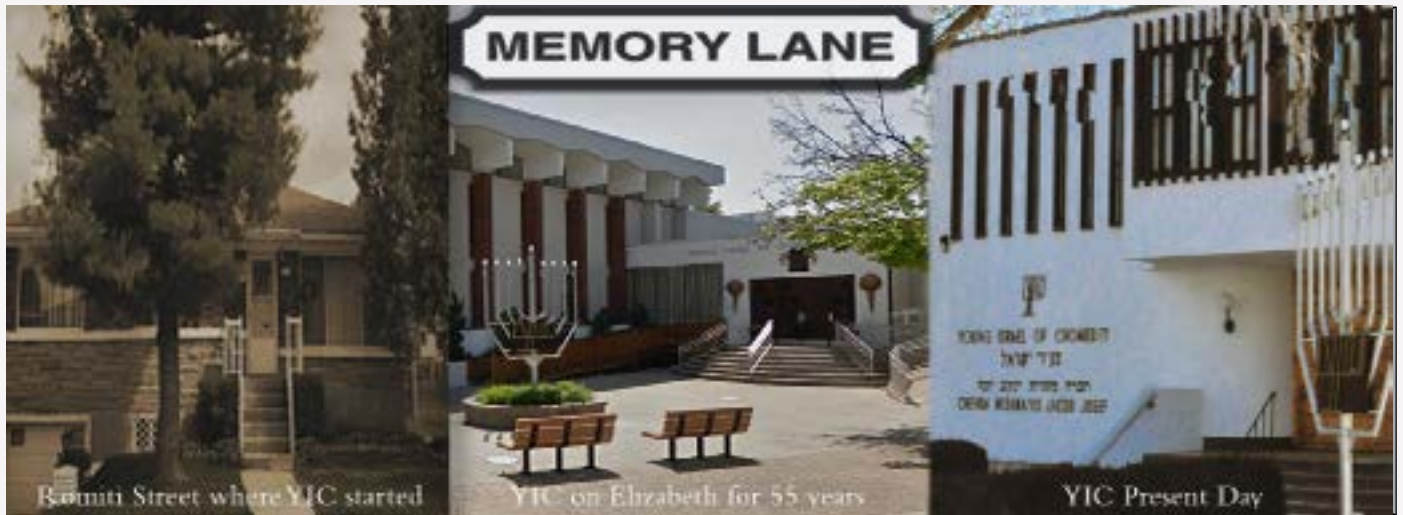

Aaron's grandson Pinchas is rewarded for his act of zealotry in killing the Simeonite prince Zimri and the Midianite princess who was his paramour: G-d grants him a covenant of peace and the priesthood.

A census of the people counts 601,730 men between the ages of twenty and sixty. Moses is instructed on how the Land is to be divided by lottery among the tribes and families of Israel. The five daughters of Tzelafchad petition Moses that they be granted the portion of the land belonging to their father, who died without sons; G-d accepts their claim and incorporates it into the Torah's laws of inheritance.

Moses empowers Joshua to succeed him and lead the people into the Land of Israel.

The Parshah concludes with a detailed list of the daily offerings, and the additional offerings brought on Shabbat, Rosh Chodesh (first of the month), and the festivals of Passover, Shavuot, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret.
