The Prophet ﷺ said:
"Among the Muslims the most perfect
as regards his faith is the one whose character is most excellent and the best among you are those who treat their wives well"

Does your spouse put you down?
Do they control who you see and what you do?
Do they threaten to harm or take away your children?
Do they act in ways that intimidate or scare you?

In a study by the Muslim Anti-Racism Collaborative, nearly 59% of Muslims reported experiences of racial discrimination by OTHER Muslims.

Join us tomorrow (5/29) at 7pm CST for a live parents discussion about racism with Sr. Sana Husain, MA. Ed. Sana is the Educational Director at Noor Kids.

Islamic Logic

- Allah says saving one life is like saving all of humanity (Quran 5:32)
- Allah tells us not to put ourselves at risk of death (Quran 2:195)
- The Prophet (pbuh) once on a rainy day inserted an announcement in Azan that people pray at home. When Prophet's companion Abdullah Ibn Abbas narrated this on a Friday for people to pray at home, some Muslims disliked it, dismayed, he responded: "One who is better than me did that. Jummah is obligatory, but I do not want to force you to walk in the mud and on slippery ground." (Recorded by Sahih Bukhari)
- The Prophet of Allah has asked us to tie the camel and then depend on Allah.
- Protecting and saving human life is the first and foremost objective of Shari'ah. It takes precedent over all other objectives of Islamic faith as life is the basis of everything else.
- Early Islamic scholars in the past have cancelled Juma prayers when there is a storm or health risk for people.

The Beautiful Sunnah of Fridays

(Although there is no Jummah prayer to attend, please do not abandon the beautiful sunnah of Fridays)

- Take a thorough bath, as the Prophet (pbuh) would on Fridays
- Clip nails
- Brush your teeth. The Prophet would brush his teeth (miswak) several times a day and highly recommended it for Jummah
- The Prophet (pbuh) loved to apply scent/perfume especially on Fridays
- Send blessing to the Prophet, peace be upon him, all day long
- Make sure to recite Surah Al-Kahf, chapter 18 of the Quran, as the Prophet (pbuh) did and encouraged us to do. This chapter offers amazing insights into how Allah Almighty operates which is sometimes difficult for us to understand
- Jummah is a day of dua. So, make extra supplications all day long
- Make duas between Asr & Maghrib prayers in particular

Gratitude

We would like to thank the frontline workers. This includes all nurses, physicians, police, firefighters, paramedics, transit drivers, airport staff, garbage collectors, grocery store cashiers, restaurant servers, C.D.C. employees, government officials, social service organizations, our fellow masjid/mosques, churches, gurdwaras, temples, and synagogues and all the volunteers and charities supporting those most in need.
Thank You!

O you who have believed, be persistently standing firm for Allah , witnesses in justice, and do not let the hatred of a people prevent you from being just. Be just; that is nearer to righteousness. And fear Allah ; indeed, Allah is Acquainted with what you do.
