

Coronavirus Q&A, Part 1

Phil Johnson & Mike Riccardi

- 0:00–3:30 – Is virtual communion a legitimate option during quarantine? Under regular circumstances, should we bring communion to those physically unable to attend the corporate gathering?
- 3:31–5:30 – Is “virtual church” church? Can our live stream “meetings” replace the assembly?
- 5:31–9:52 – Is the Coronavirus God’s judgement?
- 9:53 – 12:54 – If a non-Christian, who by external standards is a “good-person,” is fearful during this pandemic, how should we as Christians address them?
- 12:55–15:26 – How can we best serve one another during this pandemic?
- 15:27–19:54 – What advice do you have for stewarding the stimulus checks to be given by the government?
- 19:55–22:44 – Is “Easter” a biblical term? Should we call it “Resurrection Sunday” instead?
- 22:45 – 27:39 – Is it biblical to refrain from taking communion because of personal sin?
- 27:40–32:17 – Does Revelation 3:5 teach that some who were written in the Book of Life will be removed from that book?
- 32:18–39:24 – With all of the wisdom given to Solomon, how is it that he would live so unwisely in the multiplication of wives and concubines?
- 39:25–43:29 – Since the Bible describes marriage as a covenant between one man and one woman for life, why don’t we see more condemnation of polygamy in the Scriptures?
- 43:30–49:04 – What is a Christian husband’s duty if he wants to make a radical decision, but it goes against his wife’s conscience and she doesn’t agree with it at all?
- 49:05–59:19 – What should a wife do when her husband consistently contradicts the teaching of the church of which both are members?
- 59:20–1:06:59 – Are the technological advancements which facilitate communication during this pandemic potentially paving the way for a one-world government or a “mark of the beast” kind of scenario?
- 1:07:00–1:12:09 – What five works by Spurgeon or the Puritans would you recommend reading during this pandemic?

1:12:10–End – How can we best prepare our hearts and minds for worship in this season of Good Friday and Resurrection Sunday?
