Kosherfest Planning Many Events in 20-21; To Survey Industry

Portland, ME...Kosherfest is preparing to announce a series of global events for the kosher food industry through 2021, it was announced by Diversified Business

Communication and Lubicom, the co-producers of the annual Kosherfest. Under consideration is a rescheduled Kosherfest due to Covid-19, dates for the highly anticipated new product competition, a virtual on-line kosher food showcase and event and more. In the coming days, many exhibitors and key buyers will receive surveys to help organizers plan the major kosher events for 2020-2021. Interest remains strong in holding a traditional kosher food trade show with varying opinions as to the best possible date. Kosherfest organizers are closely monitoring government regulations on assembly, travel, and events. As part of its intensive review, Kosherfest officials have reached out to international organizations, including the Israel Export Institute and government
